

Important Update on Canada Postal Strike and Payment Options

The full shutdown of Canada Post operations during the strike by Canadian Union of Postal Workers will affect the timely delivery of important municipal documents including property tax notices, utility bills and other time-sensitive correspondence. During this time, the City is exploring alternative methods to notify residents and businesses.

OVERVIEW

No mail will be delivered or sent while Canada post is on strike, which affects how residents receive and send municipal documents for the foreseeable future. Despite the disruption in mail, residents and businesses must still make payments by the due dates. All payment deadlines remain in effect, regardless of whether you have received your bill by mail. To avoid late fees, interest charges or penalties, we encourage using alternative methods listed below to make payments on time.

UTILITY BILL PAYMENTS

Utility bills are due October 31 and were not mailed prior to the postal strike. Learn about alternative payment options on our website and refer to information below. For questions, call 250 248-6144 or email cashier@parksville.ca.
