

City of Parksville Retirement Announcement

It was announced today by Fred Manson, Chief Administrative Officer that after a long and successful career, Gayle Jackson, has decided to retire from her position of Director of Community Planning.

Gayle Jackson came to the City of Parksville in 1998 and over her time with the City has left a lasting legacy on the many and varied developments that have helped shape a vibrant and livable City for residents and visitors to enjoy. Ms Jackson's dedicated and exemplary service; her creativity in the development of the AquaStar Water Awareness, participation in developing the waterfront walkway and other programs; the knowledge, experience, and professionalism given so freely throughout her career, will be missed.

The City of Parksville wishes Ms Jackson a long and happy retirement as she embarks on an exciting new chapter in her life.
