

DISTRICT 69 RECREATION COMMISSION TO RECOGNIZE TOP PERFORMANCES

The District 69 Recreation Commission is pleased to recognize local athletes and artists who have won gold medals at provincial championships this year. Twenty athletes have been invited to attend an awards presentation and reception on Thursday, November 28 from 3:30-4:30 pm at Oceanside Place.

“Through our Performance Recognition Program, the District 69 Recreation Commission strives to recognize members of our community who embrace the concept of active living, and who contribute to the well-being of our community through their achievements in athletics and the arts,” said District 69 Recreation Commission Chairperson Scott Tanner.

A wide variety of athletes who attended the B.C. Seniors Games and other provincial championships will receive certificates at the presentation.

The RDN Performance Recognition Program is open to individuals and teams who have placed first in a provincial, inter-provincial or national athletic or artistic competition. To qualify for this program, nominees must be amateur participants who live in the City of Parksville, the Town of Qualicum Beach or Electoral Area E, F, G or H.

For more information on the RDN Performance Recognition Program, please contact RDN Recreation and Parks at 250-248-3252 or view the information online at www.rdn.bc.ca.
