

Opening for Members on Advisory Planning Commission

The term of office for several members of the Advisory Planning Commission (APC) will expire on December 31, 2013. At this time the City will consider applications for new members as well as the existing members for the term (2014-2015). The City invites applications for a two-year term on the APC.

The function of the seven member APC is to advise Council on matters respecting land use and community planning referred to the APC by Council. Applicants with experience in land use planning, architectural design or related fields would be an asset, although this is not a prerequisite. APC members are appointed pursuant to Section 898 of the Local Government Act and serve without remuneration.

Anyone interested in serving on the Advisory Planning Commission should send their application to director of community planning Blaine Russell, City of Parksville, PO Box 1390, 100 Jensen Avenue East, Parksville V9P 2H3 (phone 250 954-4673).

Applications will be accepted until December 31, 2013, and will then be referred to Council for consideration.
