

South Portion of Ermineskin Parkland Closed to Public

On recommendation from the Municipal Insurance Association of British Columbia, the City of Parksville has decided to close the southern portion of the Ermineskin parkland property until further notice (outlined in red in the map below).

There is no timeline on when this area will be re-opened. Parksville staff will be addressing any items which may be considered as a risk to the public. Once addressed, this area of the Ermineskin parkland will be reopened. Closure signs have been posted on the trails into the property.
