

Chamber of Commerce Week in Parksville

February 15 marks the beginning of Chamber of Commerce Week in the City of Parksville. Joining other communities across British Columbia and at the request of the Parksville and District Chamber of Commerce, Mayor Ed Mayne has proclaimed February 15 to February 21 as Chamber of Commerce Week in Parksville.

Chamber of Commerce Week recognizes the outstanding contributions Chambers make to communities across the province and is an opportunity for Chambers of Commerce to showcase their work on behalf of business communities.

A strong local business community is a key driver of economic prosperity, creating jobs and opportunities for residents and supporting community growth. The Parksville and District Chamber of Commerce is dedicated to strengthening the City of Parksville's business community, helping our community thrive; each year, Chamber members dedicate volunteer hours in service both to local business and the wider community.
