

Mayor Proclaims Chamber of Commerce Week in Parksville

February 14 marks the beginning of Chamber of Commerce Week in the City of Parksville. Joining other communities across British Columbia and in support of the Parksville and District Chamber of Commerce, Mayor Ed Mayne has proclaimed February 14 to February 20 as Chamber of Commerce Week in Parksville.

Chamber of Commerce Week recognizes the outstanding contributions that Chambers make to communities across the province and is an opportunity for Chambers of Commerce to showcase their work on behalf of business communities. Each year, Parksville Chamber members dedicate many volunteer hours in service to local business and the wider community.

A strong local business community is a key driver of economic prosperity, creating jobs and opportunities for residents and supporting community growth. Chambers provide a place for entrepreneurs to share ideas about what's working for their business. The Parksville and District Chamber of Commerce is dedicated to strengthening the City of Parksville's business community and helping our community to thrive.

Quote – Mayor Ed Mayne

“The Chamber network and the support provided by the Parksville Chamber is more important than ever as our businesses continue to navigate the extraordinary circumstances and difficult challenges of operating during a pandemic. The Parksville Chamber, as an integral part of our community, continues to demonstrate the good work they do for Parksville businesses.”
