Parksville Firefighters to Make Splash with Charity Carwash

The sponges are out! If you want to make your car sparkle and shine but not crazy about doing it yourself, Parksville firefighters can lend a helping hand... all for charity. Parksville Volunteer Fire Department will host a charity carwash, rain, or shine at the Parksville Firehall on Saturday, April 30 to support the BC Professional Fire Fighters Burn Fund.

In return for a donation, Parksville firefighters will be there to wash your vehicles between 10 am and 2 pm. Firefighters donate their time so let's see just how many cars, motorcycles, or scooters (the dirtier the better) they can wash for this great cause. No vehicle? You are welcome to come by the firehall and watch the fun.

The BC Professional Fire Fighters Burn Fund provides lifesaving, life-supporting, and life-enriching services to people across British Columbia. Information about the burn fund at <https://burnfund.org>.

The event is organized by the Parksville Firefighters Association:

Saturday April 30, from 10 am to 2 pm

Parksville Fire Hall

160 Jensen Avenue West (please enter off Jensen Avenue West)

Please note, visitors to our carwash will remain in their vehicles for safety reasons. As well as washing cars in return for a donation, crews will be on hand to chat about being a paid on-call firefighter with the Parksville Volunteer Fire Department.
