

Indigenous Survivors Day Proclaimed in the City

At the June 17 Council meeting, Mayor Doug O'Brien proclaimed June 30, 2024, as Indigenous Survivors Day in the City of Parksville. The proclamation is included with this release. The intention of Indigenous Survivors Day is to recognize and honour the enduring resilience of Indigenous communities.

Each year, the City recognizes National Indigenous Peoples Day on June 21 and the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation on September 30 and are honoured to include recognition for Indigenous Survivors Day as well.

Quote Mayor Doug O'Brien

"As a City, we recognize the lives and communities impacted by the residential school system in Canada. June 30 is a day to honour and uphold survivors and intergenerational survivors of the residential school system and a reminder of the ongoing challenges confronted by Indigenous people and communities."
