

2027 Special Events Applications Now Accepted

Applications are now being accepted from organizations and individuals interested in hosting 2027 community events at City-owned venues and/or along City streets and sidewalks. Annual community events will be given priority if applications are received by November 30, 2026. Applications received after that will be considered as new event requests and processed on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to venue and date availability.

Information about the City's special events policy and application forms is available on the City's website. Event organizers seeking additional information or assistance with the application process can contact the Special Events Coordinator at events@parksville.ca or 250-954-3086. Completed applications should be submitted by email to events@parksville.ca.
