The City's bylaw compliance department provides the citizens of Parksville with a variety of services related to regulatory issues. Bylaw officers work primarily on a complaint-driven basis, in accordance with Council Policy No. 3.33. The bylaw compliance department attempts, where possible, to gain compliance with the municipal bylaws before resorting to enforcement actions such as issuing tickets or seeking stronger legal solutions.

ANIMAL CONTROL

[Animal Control
Bylaw No. 1524](#)

October 2024

How many dogs can I keep at my home?

You can keep a maximum of three dogs over the age of four months.

Do I need a dog licence?

Yes. All dogs over the age of six months must be licensed.

Where should dogs be leashed?

Dogs must be leashed in all public areas in the City except the designated off-leash park.

Dogs are loose on the beach; what should I do?

If the dog is above the high-water mark (in the park), report it to the City. If the dog is below the high-water mark (on the sand), call 1 877 952-7277 (RAPP) to report it to the BC Conservation Officer Service.

There's a lost dog on the street; what should I do?

If you have the dog in your care (i.e. in your yard, on a leash, etc.) call the City 24/7. If the dog is running loose, a bylaw compliance officer will not attend.

Do I need to pick up after my dog?

Yes. Most parks have doggie bags available.

My neighbour's dog barks constantly; what should I do?

Document the barking (time, date and duration). If a dog barks for more than 10 minutes without a break OR for a cumulative total of 15 minutes in one hour, you can file a bylaw complaint.

Will the City help eradicate rats, feral rabbits or other vermin from my neighbourhood?

No. Homeowners are responsible for dealing with vermin issues. Humane traps can be obtained from local businesses.

Can I keep bees?

Yes. Beekeeping is permitted in the City.

Neighbourhood cats are bothering me; can the City help?

No. The City does not regulate cats.

Can I keep hens for eggs?

Yes. You may keep up to four hens but only if you meet requirements in the City's zoning bylaw. Contact the City planning department for more information. planning@parksville.ca

Can I feed the wildlife?

No. Feeding all wildlife (deer, raccoons, squirrels, etc.) is strictly prohibited.

Can I hunt wildlife in the City?

No. All firearms (including bows) are prohibited.

MAKING A COMPLAINT
